

It's important in a free and democratic society to have a diversity of perspectives expressed in the media. This can not happen if the FCC eliminates or reduces the limits on media ownership. Please rethink your position and protect the public's right to diversity in media content, ownership and employment. The FCC was created to regulate communication in the public interest, not the media conglomerates interest.